Cover Story

This is the cover of the very first issue of the Mewsletter. The artwork is an original drawing done by Lady Ca-triona Roche. As the original editor, Lady Valentina Kras-naya, writes, "It was a hard choice coming up with a cover for the first flight of the Mewsletter, but I finally decided to find something with a falcon on it, done by one of our mem-bers. As you might guess, that narrowed down the number of choices drastically."

The Chronicler's Quill

Saludos hasta el folk de la Comarca de la Falcon's Keep (Greetings unto the folk of the Shire of Falcon's Keep)

Reading the first Mewsletter was very interesting. It was strange to read about Haire Affaire and Poor Man's from the viewpoint of someone who is planning one of the first occurrences of these events, instead of from the viewpoint of an established event that has occurred many times. The tone is not anticipation of having been there before, but more like, will this work? Are we creating something that will endure? We know that both events have en-dured, so all the work the first planners put into the events was well worth it.

The first Mewsletter was printed in 1993, Volume 1, Issue 1. We are now at Volume 20, Issue 12. If anyone knows where the differ-ence of three years occurred, I would be interested in finding out. By my calculations, this should only be Volume 17.

It has been fun and very interesting creating the Mewsletter for eve-ryone this past year, and I look forward to doing another year.

Atentamente en el Servicio,
Pedro de Benavides

Minutes from November 14th moot:

Does anyone have any ideas about how to keep Falcon's Gate going? They have very few members and many of the current ones are very busy.

Sewing nights will be continuing, please check the website for locations.

Daisho Con was on November 21, 2010. We had a pretty good turnout for people watching the demo. Lady Alex, Herr Janvier, and Lord Justinian were the fighters present. Travis and Lady Emelye were also present. There were also a few members of Falcon's Gate.

Soap making was lots of fun.

Lord Justinian will retire as group's Knight's Marshall at the end of the year. Rawlik will be taking over.

Lady Marie says the directory is going well. If you would like to contribute your information, please contact her.

We sampled some of the dishes Mistress Ealasaid is thinking of using for the Haire Affaire feast, and they were wonderful.

Lady Emelye will be the class-o-crat for Haire Affaire. If you are interested in teaching anything, please contact her at ans@falconskeep.org.

Merchants and classes will be in the same rooms as last year. We are going to work on improving the heat situation in the merchant room.
